MATRIMONIAL. TO THE LADIES OF THE UNITED STATES:

It has been my good fortune to restore to health many houseasts of my country-women.

My success has excited the malice of the envious and exists; but their persecutions have served only to extend and estab wh my reputation. Showers of grateful offerior have fallen ween my gathway, from the but sufferers whom I have relieved. So long as I sm beld in affectionate and thankful remembrance by those who have exercised my skill, I can afferd to despise the efforts of muchief-maker

My friends have repeatedly urged me to place my medicine for preducing menatronics within the reach of the Ladies of the United States; but an indisposition to enter a Ladies of the United States, but an indisposition to enter a field so occapied by quantics, with their perheicious noutrums, and a fear that unprincipled counterfeiters might palm upon the public their worthless imitations, here hither a pre-vented me from establishing agencies for the sale of my "AMIE DE FEMME." in the United States.

At last, I yield to the entreaties of patient and friends, and offer to the suffering Fermiles of America a modicine which has rendered me somewhat famous throughout the
